The little dog was very sick, but managed to recover after a week. Sawyer says that this is the strongest proof that rats are dangerous, for he says many times Jack has been made deathly sick by killing one rat which he put out of business with one click of his jaws, it never getting a chance to even scratch him.

Since the order has been given to clear the city of rodents Jack has been putting in a little overtime. Sawyer says that he has not seen a rat since he was put in the block in which he lives to hunt rats, but now he lets him go after them wherever he wants. The neighbors know about Jack and every time they find traces of a rat one of the family goes to Sawyer's back yard and gets Jack.

And that's the end of Mister Rat.

PRISONER PENS PATHETIC PLEA.

DRUG VICTIM IN COUNTY JAIL
ASKS FOR WARM CLOTHES.

Dr. Thomas Messerole, Who Has Seen Better Days, Now in Limbo
for Passing Bogus Coins—Writes United States Marshal That He Suffers—Appeal Bears Fruit.

Dr. Thomas Messerole, once the possessor of a large practice in an eastern city, but prior to his arrest on a charge of passing counterfeit money, a nervous and physical wreck from the use of cocaine, has addressed from the County Jail a rather pathetic appeal to United States Marshal Young-worth. In which he asks earnestly for warmer clothing and a better pair of shoes. The writer evidently intended to write a jocular note, but it was impossible for him to sustain the part,
and the letter closed with bitter references to his present condition as a Federal prisoner.

Deprived of his drug, the craving for which led him to attempt to pass a bogus silver dollar, Messerole realizes the fatal hold the habit had upon him.
He has intimated his willingness to be sent to the penitentiary in order that the craving for cocaine may be entirely overcome.

The officers are inclined to believe Messerole's story to the manner in which he obtained the very poor imitations of a silver dollar. He said he stumbled upon a package hid behind a billboard. He opened it and discovered the metal pieces. He stored them away in the lining of his coat. Later in the day he tried to pass one of the coins on a merchant, but was held in the store until the arrival of an officer.

As passing counterfeit money comes under the jurisdiction of the Federal authorities, Messerole was transferred to the custody of the United States Marshal. At first the prisoner assumed the name of Nemo (nothing), but later gave what is supposed to be his real name. He stated that his relatives in the East had disowned him because of his drug habit. He arrived in this city with a little money, but rapidly degenerated into the lowest type of wanderer and vagabond.

He is the last person in whom a counterfeiter would impose confidence, and apparently Dr. Messerole has no acquaintances in the city except one druggist, who sold him cocaine whenever he could secure 10 cents or more with which to satisfy that terrible craving.

Emaciated to the last degree, and with the blood impoverished by his dissipated life, the prematurely old physician suffers from the chill of the prison, and writes:

"Unlike the famous prisoner in a grim donjon tower who kept warm by writing verse, I suffer from unpoetic chills. My shoes have various apertures. I often insert my feet into the wrong hole by mistake. As to the somewhat delicate subject of underwear, my present outfit would not be worn by a track sprinter, who is warned by the hot joy of contest. I do not ask luxurious lingerie of silken texture. Just any old thing, oh, clement officials."

The United States Marshal stated
he will not allow any Federal prisoner to suffer from cold, and gave an order to supply the talented inmate of the County Jail with warm, substantial clothing, and a pair of serviceable shoes.

At the Churches Yesterday.

Bringing Corners Together.

THE United States was declared to be the strongest, and well nigh the wickedest, nation on the globe in a sermon delivered yesterday morning at Immanuel Presbyterian Church by Joseph Ernest McAfee, associate secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions. The stirring address was delivered to a large congregation.
Mr. McAfee has recently been appointed to a position of responsibility
on the Home Mission board.

That the cause of missions may be presented to the Presbyterian churches of the West Mr. McAfee is touring the Pacific States. His headquarters is in New York.

His father, Lowell M. McAfee, is president of Ford College, Mo., one brother is pastor of the Cuyler Presbyterian Church in New York City, and another, Rev. Lapsley McAfee, of the First Presbyterian Church of Berkeley.
Since his appointment, Mr. McAfee has raised thousands of dollars for the cause of home missions. He declared yesterday that the task of securing funds in the West is made greater by the fact that the West has been exploited as a land of opulence.

The practical problem of home missions, said Mr. McAfee, "is getting the north, south, east and west corners of the earth together. Home missions consists in making the most of our natural solidarity. The average American has at his tongue's end a string of stories concerning the wonderful wealth and resources of the West.
These he pours into the ears of his eastern brother. There is not a State west of the Mississippi that is not a record holder in its line of grain, grapes canned salmon or gold. The easterner cannot understand why it is necessary to beg for money to carry on missions
in this land of opulence."

"Now the layman of the East goes to church and hears the call to come to the aid of his western brother. He has heard the West heralded as the Eldorado since the beginning of time, but the eloquence of the preacher falls
flat when the easterner is asked to aid
this land where he has been told so much riches abound. He cannot understand why the opulent westerner of the week day should become so poverty-stricken on Sunday."

But the talk of the boomer, and the appeal of the preacher, are two very different. The boomer was talking of one spot, and the missionary of another. Still the easterner believes the churches of the West, with all the resources of the West, ought to be able to hold their own.

"The appeal of the great developing
West is not an appeal of destitution.
When I have to ask an audience in New York to aid a growing community in the West, with a population of 1,000, and whose bank clearances exceed $25,000,000 a month, I confess that my call does not ring out as clear as it might."

"I wish to remind you that God has laid a great task upon you. If we of Los Angeles are to rise to the opportunity, Immanuel Church must lead, as God has given you the responsible position of leadership. I might remind you of the many thousands of Indians starving in your midst. Under the very eaves of your houses are the needy. I noticed scores of Mexican laborers laying their weary heads against the walls of your street railways. The emigrants from Europe are knocking on your shores. These foreigners have a hunger for the sacrament of life, and they have come to you to ask for it. Then we have the fifty-five or sixty millions of common people who have made this nation the mightiest, and well nigh
the wickedest, on the globe."

"Out here in the big ranches are being broken up. The farmer of today must be a scientist.
The time when any one could make a living out of the virgin soil has passed.
Yet there never was a time when such a grand opportunity was presented to the church of Jesus Christ as now.
These are the days of materialism. This is just the chance for the gospel to charge the materialism with spiritualism. The church will learn to thank God for this new and glorious opportunity."

"The Lord's Prayer."
In the Temple Baptist Church Pastor
Robert J. Burdette preached the second of the series of morning sermons on
"The Lord's Prayer," his text being the first petition, "Hallowed be Thy Name." "The prayer," said he, "begins with love—'Our Father.' And Love reaches out her hand to Reverence, and together they bow the head of the God of all the universe. 'Our Father' knocks at the door of grace.
'Hallowed be Thy Name,' opens it.
Before we make confession of our sins,
before we ask forgiveness, before we speak of our own sorrows, our temptations, our human needs, our trials,
before we think of ourselves we ask for the greatest of all things—that the name of our God may be 'made holy.'
Holy in our prayers, holy in our thoughts; holy in our lives. If the Heavenly Father grant us this, all the prayer has been prayed."

"His will cannot be done in a disobedient, rebellious world. If we make His name holy in our hearts, we will do His will here on earth; joyfully, willingly, lovingly, even as it is done in heaven. If His name be made holy,
His perfect love will feed His children with daily manna—bread of heaven for body and soul. If His name be made holy by us, in our prayers and in our lives, gladly will we forgive our debtors, even as we pray to forgive. If His name burn constantly, a white flame of holiness in our souls, hour by hour, no temptation can ever lead us in the ways of sin—nay, the whispers of temptation could not hiss their serpentine way into our thoughts, enfolded safely in the Holy Name. If we walked in the holiness of the sacred name, even though we walk through the darkness and the horrors of the Valley of the Shadow of Death, we will fear no evil. Then, if with all our mind and heart, and soul and strength and faith
we pray, 'Hallowed be Thy Name,' we have asked for the six petitions of the Prayer. And if we have not prayed for that, how can we ask for the other things of the prayer? For they can only come through the gateway of pearl, down the highway of holiness."

Wandering Christians.
At St. John's Episcopal Church, Rev.
Lewis G. Morris, the rector, preached on the text, "Stand Therefore." He said in part: "In one of his essays, Dr. Henry Drummond writes, 'The great disquiet of the present day
is not more Christians, but a better brand of them.' The principal reason why the church does not advance more rapidly and win more people is found in the ordinary life of the ordinary Christian. There are amongst us today
some who are true soldiers of Jesus Christ, who are manfully fighting under His banner against sin, the world the flesh and the devil. Alas! this can not honestly be said of the majority of men and women who call themselves disciples of the great Master. I do not say that most men are hypocrites or that they are living lives given over to evil. I do say, however, that the majority who fear the name of Christian,
do not stand firm, 'four square to the WIDOW GONE, CHARMER TOO.

Man Takes Friend's Clothes and Leaves Debts.

Looked Like Love at First Sight With Pair.

Woman's Sister Denies That It's an Elopement.

Friends of Mrs. Blanche Wilde and Percy J. Clark believe they eloped yesterday, as both disappeared from the Hotel Granada, No. 419 South Grand avenue, Saturday night, and have not returned.

Mrs. Wilde is a young widow, employed by the Los Angeles Information Bureau. Clark is a book agent. He left an unpaid account of $65 at the Granada, and a 340 suit of clothes belonging to E. H. Van Nostrand is missing.

Clark came from Santa Barbara, early in September and rented a handsome first-floor apartment of three rooms. A few days later he had an expensive piano and pianola sent up. Shortly afterward Mrs. Wilde and her sister, Miss Lela Rhodes, returned to the hotel from Ocean Park, where they had spent the summer.

With Clark and Mrs. Wilde it is said to have been a case of love at first sight. They were together almost constantly during the few weeks of their acquaintance, and Clark's rooms were given, presumably, in honor of the charming widow. She is of the blonde type, tall and pretty.

On Saturday Mrs. Wilde packed her trunk and had it taken away by an expressman, but didn't tell any one that she was leaving. In the evening she went out, ostensibly for a walk, while her sister carried out a suit case by rear entrance and joined Mrs. Wilde near Grand avenue and Fourth streets.

Mrs. Wilde went alone to the Angels Flight, and it is supposed was met there by Clark, as they entered a drug store at South Hill and Third streets a little after 7 o'clock. There they met another guest of the Granada, but nothing was said of either going away.

Clark's absence was discovered yesterday by Van Nostrand and J. C. Lowry, who roomed with him, when they returned home early in the morning. The apartment was found in great confusion, with drawers and dressers stood open, and there was evidence of hasty packing. A further investigation provided that Clark's belongings were missing, besides a suit of Van Nostrand's clothes.

As he had been seen to enter the hotel up to midnight Saturday, it is supposed Clark either climbed in through a window, or had a key to the back door, which is usually kept locked. The trunk must have been lowered from a window, or he had help to carry it out the rear way.

Van Nostrand and Lowry went to bed, and did not report the absence of their roommate to Mrs. Mackley, the proprietress, until yesterday afternoon. She at once reported it to the police, and detectives were sent to investigate.

Lowry and Van Nostrand claim they paid Clark their share of the rent, and supposed he had paid for his furniture, but he had not done so. Besides the rent, Lowry claims to have loaned Clark $55 and declared the latter promised to pay part of it Saturday night.

When asked about her sister's absence yesterday, Miss Rhodes was indignant, and denied emphatically that there was any secret about it.

"My sister has gone to make a business," she said, "and I am going to telegraph her to come home at once, and put an end to all this nonsense."

"Mr. Clark was a friend of the family, and if he took his trunk out without saying anything about it, I suppose he had reasons to do so."

Clark spent money freely while he stayed at the hotel, and his friends are impressed that he had means. He formerly lived at Seattle.

BELASCO BOYCOTT.
Weak-Kneed Musicians Yell for Help on Prospective Theater Black-List-Affair a Joke.

The Belasco Theater management has just been invited to consider its own boycott.

Having failed to make their personal boycott stick, the union-labor musicians have been forced to beg the theater's consideration, and to make an effective ban. Manager Blackwood says he is ready, and has a stipulated and a piece of picture wire ready to assist the fellow who comes to hang the sign of the disgraced totem on the front of the house.

The whole farcical affair is the outcome of the orchestra trouble experienced by the Belasco during the summer. At that time, as detailed at length in these columns, the antics of the union leaders became so intolerable that the orchestra under their domination was discharged, and a non-union orchestra substituted—which immediately made a success as one of the best theatrical orchestras on record in the town. The musical union raised its customary shout of boycott, but nothing else was heard of the matter. Yesterday Blackwood received a letter from the Central Labor Council here, stating that the musicians had asked that body to declare a general boycott. The council's secretary hopes that affairs can be "satisfactorily arranged."

Blackwood is hollering for them to come on. "Times are dull," said he last night, "and we need just that sort of good advertising."

RETURNS WITH HONORS.
Los Angeles Man Admitted to Practice Before Highest Tribunal.

Owens River Advertiser.

Attorney Oscar C. Mueller has returned from a visit to the East. He was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of New York and State while in Washington. D. C. Mueller declares the Owens River project has advertised Los Angeles in the East more than anything else could have done. He says people in Washington and New York are talking of the enterprise of Los Angeles, and are anxious to know of the resources of Southern California.

"We are representing an able attorney who is taking care of our interests in the Department of the Interior," said Mr. Mueller. "We are all right at Washington. I found that real estate is more active in Los Angeles than in Chicago or New York. There is a greater tendency to buy hard times in New York than there is in this city."

RAT-KILLING FOR HEALTH.

Physician Says Felices Spread Disease and Ought to Go to Perdition With Rats.

Dr. E. O. Sawyer is advocating a new idea for the city's cleaning-up campaign. He will ask that provision be made for the killing of all cats at the same time the populace is engaged in ridding houses of rats.

Dr. Sawyer says his investigation lead him to believe that cats are more dangerous disease spreaders than rats possibly can be. He says from one family to another diseases are carried by cats, and that as these pets are taken directly into households, and "babbled" into close contact with people, they are a menace.

He says if the theory is correct that rats become infected with disease, then this adds another link of evidence in the indictment against cats, for every well-regulated feline is a rat and mouse catcher by instinct and practice. Cats also are subject to tuberculosis and other contagious diseases, he says.

"Stray dogs in this city are caught and killed," said Sawyer yesterday, "because of the belief that dogs sometimes have hydrophobia; but cats are let alone, and they are so thick in some sections that you can see them on every vacant lot. Every one of them may have been feasting on diseased rats."

SANTA FE DRILLS.
Associated Oil to Stop Deliveries and Railway Company Goes After Its Own Oil.

The discontinuing of the contract which the Santa Fe had with the Associated Oil Company to supply locomotives with fuel makes it necessary for the railway company to begin immediately to look for its own oil property in the vicinity of the Kern River fields. A clause in the contract, which allowed it to be broken by either party on six months' notice, was taken advantage of by the Associated, and it will stop deliveries January 1.

The Santa Fe has been holding its Kern River property as insurance against a lack of oil, and has never allowed it to be used to commence operations as long as it could secure contracts with producing companies, holding that it is cheaper to buy oil than produce it. Now, however, it is practically without a contract, and operations will be hampered at once.

OIL NOTES.
The "fake" reservoir of the Standard Oil Company at Coalinga is to be torn down. Since its construction four years ago, no oil whatever has been put into the city and several times the company claimed to have it full. The activity of the Interstate Commerce Commission forced the Standard to admit the "bluff" comes down. The tank is capable of holding 500,000 barrels of oil, and the cost of this size of tank would have a telling effect on prices.

The Associated has joined the prevalent activity in the Kern River fields, and answers to the call for oil by sinking twenty wells and preparing to make the number six.

J. C. Allen, expert chemist, is collecting samples of oil from all the wells in the Coalinga fields, and preparing to send them to the geological department at Berkeley, where analysis will be made of the oil.

A report made and a bulletin issued giving the results.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.
Six Congregations Unite in Largely-Attended Service at Haven Church.

There was a large attendance at the revival service conducted by Evangelist J. W. M'Wood at Haven Methodist Church yesterday afternoon. There were eight congregations. The church was crowded for the evening service. A chorus of seventy-five voices rendered gospel hymns. The interest was intense. At the evening service twenty-five were converted.

The forward movement of the Methodist churches of the city will begin in the meetings in progress at Haven Church, they are Vincent Methodist Church, South Main Street Church and St. Mark's Church.

Evangelist M'Wood will speak to women and mothers on Tuesday night at Haven Church. He will conduct meetings every night this week at the church except Saturday. Wednesday afternoon he will speak at Vincent Church, Thursday at Vernon Church, and Friday at Hamilton Church.

The revival at Selma Avenue Methodist Church were well attended yesterday. The church was crowded last night, and several were converted. Good singing is a feature of the meetings.

RECLUSE OBSTREPEROUS.
Charges Tenants Owes Rent, Routs Him from Bed, Locks Him in and Out-Arrested.

Because Fritz Nelson, an aged recluse and junk dealer, harassed his tenants for overdue rent, he was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of disturbing the peace. Upon his own recognition he was released and will appear in Police Court this morning.

J. E. Carr, whose sleep he disturbed, is the complaining witness. Nelson owns a house in the rear of No. 213 Gary street. In order to increase his revenue he had the house divided and subdivided into several small apartments. He rents two of the apartments. For more than a week, he declares, Carr's rent has been due.

After Carr's complaint, Carr was taken from a troubled sleep in which he imagined he saw demons robbing him of his rent. He has attempted numerous ways to collect the money from Carr.

He first attempted to lock Carr in his room, and then he tried to force him out. Later Carr took the door off the hinges and escaped. He says he owes no rent.

Saturday the trouble reached a climax when Nelson began hammering on Carr's door about 4 o'clock in the morning. Carr was awakened from a sound sleep. When he realized that it was Nelson he hurried to a back door. A wordy war followed, and Nelson decided to eject him by law. In the meantime Carr had a warrant sworn out for Nelson for disturbing the peace.

NEAR-TRAGEDY.
TWO WOMEN HIT BY ONE BULLET.
NARROW ESCAPE OF VICTIMS IN ADJOINING ROOMS.

Mrs. Charles Brown's Nightmare Sends Her After Burglar and She Gets Revolver from Dresser—Goes Off, But Grazes Her and Neighbor's Leg Stops It.

In a nightmare, Mrs. Charles Brown, who lives at the Everhardy, No. 27, Central avenue, arose from her bed early yesterday morning and accidentally discharged a revolver while under the covers. The bullet grazed her right side, inflicting a fresh wound, and then, penetrating the partition, the ball entered the left leg of Mrs. J. S. Armentrout, who occupied the adjoining room. Both women were taken to the Emergency Hospital. Neither wound is serious.

The report of the revolver awakened Mrs. Brown from her sleep, and she fell to the floor in a faint. Mrs. Armentrout felt only a slight sting in her leg. Hearing screams in the adjoining room, she leaped from bed and saw Mrs. Brown, who was lying on the floor, the blood streaming from the wound in her leg. She realized for the first time that she had been shot. Then she also fainted.

Several persons were aroused by the noise, and the police were called. Mrs. Brown told the officers she is subjected to nervous attacks, resulting from a spell of sickness. Her husband was asleep in the room when the shooting occurred. Mr. and Mrs. Brown came from Australia about a year and a half ago. They have lived at the Everhardy for several months, and, according to their acquaintances, have been very happy.

After Mrs. Brown recovered from her hysterical attack, she related a series of events of what had occurred. She said she imagined that burglars were in the room. She slipped off the bed and she went to the dresser where her husband kept his revolver. She believed it was discharged while she was pulling it out of the drawer.

The range of the bullet bears out her statements in every particular. The bullet, fired by Mrs. Brown, grazed slightly and ranged downward, penetrating the partition. It struck Mrs. Armentrout's leg, whose husband is proprietor of the Arcade restaurant at No. 27 Central avenue. Mrs. Armentrout was in her room at the time of the accident.

FUNERAL OF CHARLES CHARNOCK.
The funeral of Charles Charnock, age 72 years, was held yesterday afternoon at the residence, No. 254 North Broad street, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Duggett, pastor of the Euclid avenue Methodist Church, of which Mr. Charnock had long been a member, and assisted by Rev. Mr. C. B. Fredrick, pastor of the Euclid avenue Methodist Church. The burial took place in the Euclid cemetery.

IMPORTANT CASE UP TODAY.
An important case will come up in the United States District Court today (Judge Welborn) involving far-reaching interests in the city and state. The case is the Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company vs. the City of Los Angeles. It involves the right of the city to use the telephone lines for its own purposes. The case was argued yesterday by the city attorney, Mr. J. H. R. Jones, and the city of Los Angeles. The case is expected to be decided today.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

PARADE WITH BEER GLASSES.

POLICE CAUSE SENSATION IN PASADENA STREET.

Officers Carry Evidence Through Thoroughfare Yesterday After a Drop; Proprietor of White House Restaurant Arrested—Baseball Swats on Both Sides.

PASADENA, Oct. 31.—Those who saw the procession yesterday were interested in the spectacle of the Chief of Police, Howard E. Favour, Sergeant Longley and Patrolmen Staggman, Palmer and Wood, walking to the Police station, each with a glass of beer in his hand. Chief Favour says he never knew he had so many friends. Many citizens of this town and law abiding town wanted to use their influence with the Chief of Police to taste the mixture in the glasses. Favour was firm and refused them all. Now the several glasses are at the Police station, each containing it, secured by the chief. Station without spilling a single drop from any of the vessels.

The proprietor of the White House Restaurant put up a $500 bond and will appear before Justice Robert McDonald this morning. All the evidence will be submitted in court, but it is not part of the legal procedure to compel the judge to sample the corpus delicti, and this is a good thing, for now the beer is safe, fat and unprofitable.

GOOD BASEBALL GAME.
Hard hitting, good pitching and steady playing characterized a gentlemanly game of fast ball here yesterday. The score was 2 to 1 in favor of Pasadena and the losing side were the Hoogees of Los Angeles. Pasadena made one error and the Hoogees made two, but one of these misses netted a run. It was not a pitchers' battle, as Ray Hitt, for the Pasadena, only struck out two men, and Gamble had only three fans to his credit. It was a hard-hitting game, everybody wanted the ball and it was simply a case of fast and furious field work that kept the score down within limits. Pasadena made four safe hits and the Hoogees made seven, but they did not bunt them. The run getters for Pasadena were Wilson and West. Wilson went to his base, stole second, took third on fielder's choice and scored on Gamble's fumble. The second run for Pasadena was on West's bunt, taking second on fielder's choice and scoring from the base on Harris's long hit. The score of this remarkably good game is as follows:

Pasadena.....0 1 0 0 1 0 0 0
The line-up was as follows:

CRUELTY DRIVES HORSE.
With a horse nearly dead from cruel driving Patrolman Hayes took John Harris and Arthur Fish into custody and put charges of drunkenness against the pair. They had hired a team from the Eagle stables and drove the animal until it was nearly dead. As they were coming along Colorado street the policeman noticed the condition of the animal and brought the men to the station. They were taken to the Pasadena Police station and after that the Humane Society will take up the case and prosecute them for cruelty to animals.

CONTROLLING MOTORCYCLES.
Patrolmen Staggman and Reese yesterday arrested Emil Price and Grant Chapman for riding motorcycles without mufflers. It is the intention to enforce the law requiring motorcycle riders to muffle their engines. About six weeks ago this law went into effect and since that time the quiet of the city has been noticeable. Previous to that time motorcycles were about as noisy as artillery. Now, with few exceptions, the motorcyclists obey the law.

The two victims of yesterday were both from Los Angeles, and the police say that unless their example is heeded there will be other arrests, as it is a fixed purpose to arrest every motorcyclist either living in Pasadena or who comes into the town from the outside without a muffler on his engine. The same officers also arrested Thomas Wilson for being drunk on Orange Grove avenue.

AVOLON.
AVALON, Oct. 30.—Two hundred and eighty visitors from the mainland, nearly equally divided between the two boats, Harmonia and San Diego, were on record for today. A fair proportion of this number remain over until tomorrow.

The record of births and marriages for the week just ended is decidedly creditable for the island city. Peter R. Reyes, the well-known photographer, was married to Miss Ella B. Hodson. Both Mr. and Mrs. Reyes have been residents on the island for many years, and are among our most popular young people.

Frank E. Aguayo, and Miss Poulsen, were also united in matrimony. The bride has been the housekeeper at the Hotel Metropole for several years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Reyes and Mr. and Mrs. Aguayo have commenced housekeeping in this city.

There is great rejoicing in the family of George Genniere, launchman, on account of the birth of a son, which happens to be the first.
F. H. Ott and Mrs. Ott left yesterday for Arrowhead Hot Springs. Mr. Ott expects to resume his duties as manager of the local branch of the firm of Anderson & Chandler of Los Angeles, about November 15.

BAITS HOOKS FOR CATS.

Pasadena Colored Preacher Must Explain Cruelty Practice Today.

PASADENA, Oct. 31.—Rev. A. O. D. Steele, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, has some queer ideas about cats. He catches them on fish-hooks and lets them drag around a six-foot length of 2x1 timber to cure them of the chomping habit. On Saturday he drifted into a hardware store and wanted to buy fishhooks. Genuinely he told the proprietor that he wanted the hooks to catch cats.

City Veterinarian H. L. M. De Biron was present, and told the negro divine to learn his little game. Then he got S. P. C. A. Officer McManey, and together they made an investigation of the preacher's back yard. Rev. A. O. D. Steele had some sea bass hooks attached to lengths of rope and the lines were made fast to big pieces of timber. The hooks were baited with tempting pieces of meat, and were nicely laid out for the cats. The officers took the apparatus in charge, and Rev. A. O. D. Steele will explain his practice to Justice McDonald.

GALLANT RESCUE OF DROWNING MAN SPECTACULAR.

Life Guard Saves Goldfield Miner as He Sinks for Third Time—Political Interest Centers in Possible Candidates for December Municipal Election.

LONG BEACH, Oct. 30.—P. H. Gallagher was rescued from the surf this afternoon by Hans Vockeroth, a bathhouse life guard. The rescue occurred about three hundred yards off shore. Gallagher having swam out the distance from a point opposite the bathhouse and become exhausted, and was witnessed by hundreds.

His distress was noticed by the score of more bathers in the surf, but no one ventured to the rescue, a signal being sent to the bath-house for help. Vockeroth was inside the plunge building at the time, doing duty as a lifeguard. He stripped off his clothing and with a life-preserver over one shoulder breasted the breakers to where the bather was just sinking for the third time.

In the meantime a boat had been telephoned for and was putting out from the outer end of the pier and while Al Brown and George Smith rowed across to where Gallagher was struggling in the water. Vockeroth held his head above the surface. The two men were assisted into the boat and returned to the end of the pier, being brought back to the bath-house emergency hospital in an automobile.

Gallagher is an athletic young man and quickly recovered from his misadventure. He says that he simply became exhausted and was not at all tired. He is a miner, 28 years of age, and his home is in Goldfield. In this city he has been living at No. 1018 East Street.

CANDIDATES SCARE.
Tomorrow night in each of the seven wards of the city will be named a candidate for the City Council to be elected December 2, together with Mayor, City Clerk, City Treasurer, City Recorder, and City Attorney. These caucuses will be among members of the independent party, which is to hold its general convention in the auditorium on Tuesday evening.

With one or two exceptions the candidates for Councilmen have not come forward under cover yet. In the second ward the name of J. G. Hunt, a carriage manufacturer, has been mentioned, and M. E. Kelly is said to be striving for the nomination.

For City Treasurer, the name of Harry Barnard is heard, while J. J. Hart is another name being mentioned. The independent candidate for Mayor will undoubtedly be G. A. Mohrenrecher.

The Good Government party will hold a preliminary meeting on Tuesday evening at Stewart's Hall. For the Mayorality nomination on this ticket have been mentioned the names of C. H. Windham, head of the Dock and Terminal Company, C. P. Van de Water and P. H. Downs, who is the present Mayor.

THOUSANDS GO OUT ON FARTHER CARS.

Two Important Extensions of the Los Angeles Railway Company's System Were Opened Yesterday.

Cars were operated on the West Tenth street line to Gramercy place for the first time, and a new passenger coach was sent over the new roadbed of the Boyle Heights and West Seventh-street line to Melrose avenue. This line will be in full operation today.

Several miles of street railway have been added to the already large system. More residence sections dotted with fine homes are placed in touch with the heart of the city by direct car service. The benefit to property holders has been great, and residents have been given what they have so long desired, a car line which taps the growing western addition.

From the eastern to the western limit of the downtown district, the heart of the city will be reached in half the time. The extension beyond Vermont avenue, a half mile beyond Melrose avenue, will be in half a mile of Hollywood. The extension is a boon for the growing residential district, and the car service has been practically without a car service. The cars will run from the present terminus at Gramercy place to Melrose avenue, a distance of four miles, and thence over a private right of way. A twelve-minute schedule will be maintained, and the extension will be built even farther. When promised to build even farther. When promised to build even farther. When promised to build even farther.

Not satisfied with this long extension the Los Angeles Railway Company promises to build even farther. When promised to build even farther. When promised to build even farther.

TY'S GATES

When the roll was called a remarkable good showing was made. The evening was devoted to patriotic home missionary services. The Sunday-school conducting the exercises. A special evangelistic campaign has been started in the church and meetings will be held every evening except Monday and Saturday. The services will be continued for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Swartzart moved from Boyle Heights to their new home at No. 518 East Jefferson street. Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford have moved into their new home on Forty second street, near Maple avenue. Clements' relationship has returned from Stockton where he visited his mother. The work of grading Thirty-ninth street between Moneta avenue and Vermont street is now well under way. The undertaking is an ambitious one but a large number of men and teams are at work and it is hoped to have the work completed before the heavy rain comes.

Rev. C. N. Hand, pastor of Trinity Congregational Church, has gone to Cleveland, O., as a delegate to the National Congregational Council.

A heavy steam roller, used by the Fairchild-Gillingham-Paving Company for rolling the asphalt along East-ninth street, is being used on the east of Alhambra avenue, broke the pavement and sank into the street to a considerable depth. The accident occurred at the intersection of the street with the trenches filled in. The result is considerable damage to the street. The rollers in the ditches have not been properly made, and other trouble will result. Fortunately, the steam roller was barely moving at the time it sank into the pavement, and the engineer jumped without being hurt.

Over the West Tenth-street line yesterday a seven-minute schedule was maintained. Heavy street cars have been laid from Vermont avenue, the former terminus of the West Ninth-street line, to the new terminus. Double tracks are down the entire distance.

Thousands rode over the new lines yesterday, and the cars were crowded all day. They run through a beautiful and growing residential district. Residents in the territory north of Pico street and west of Vermont avenue made an interesting struggle for the extension of the West Ninth-street line. The territory is now a residential district, and the cars have been built, without car service, and the system is a bonus of $10,000 was raised. The money was quickly secured. Recently had a bank deposit of $10,000 in the bank. The bank had been deposited in the bank. The bank had been deposited in the bank.

Another important extension just completed is the University-Garvanza line. The line is a half mile beyond the city limits. Another growing residential section has been tapped by the new line.

In all new lines the heavy $50-foot rails have been used. Unless over a private right of way, double tracks have always been made in a day. The cars will be built, without car service, and the system is a bonus of $10,000 was raised. The money was quickly secured. Recently had a bank deposit of $10,000 in the bank. THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Pennsylvania Election.

The Pennsylvania Society of Southern California will meet for election and installation of officers tomorrow evening at No. 845 South Figueroa street.

Pioneer Passed.

Eugene Pellissier, a pioneer of Los Angeles, died at his home, No. 3145 Clinton street, Saturday morning. He was aged 75 years, and had lived in Los Angeles for a quarter of a century. Funeral services will be held at the undertaking parlors of Robert L. Garrett & Co. this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Railroad Surgeons' Convention.

The fifth annual convention of railroad surgeons on the Pacific Coast will be held today at the Van Nuys. This morning papers will be read, followed by a discussion. This afternoon, the visitors will probably take a trip to Mt. Lowe. About twenty-five guests are expected by the hotel management.

Injured, Faints on Street.

Harry Dean of No. 1400 Temple street was found within half a block of his home early yesterday morning suffering from injuries which he received in alighting from a Central-avenue car. His back was badly sprained, and he received several bruises. Dean had been taken to the Receiving Hospital early in the evening, shortly after the accident occurred. He refused to remain at the hospital, and was allowed to go. He fell in a faint before reaching his home.

Swedish Mining Experts Here.

C. R. Morris and A. J. Goslin, mining engineers in the employ of the Swedish government, arrived in this city yesterday. They are in the West to investigate American methods of working gold and silver mines. The experts will note carefully the modern machinery in use in the great mines, and upon their report will depend largely the methods to be employed by the Swedish government in development its newly discovered mines. Morris and Goslin are guests at the Westminster.

His Illustrious Namesake.

Norman Selby, a traveling man from Dayton, O., remarked to Clerk Washington of the Lankershim, yesterday, that this is the first city he has visited in which he has not been mistaken for Kid McCoy. "The fact that our names are the same, added to a slight resemblance, has secured me much trouble," said Selby, just before his departure. "I have never seen the pugilist, but have received mail intended for him, and have been often mistaken for my illustrious namesake in towns along my route. I guess the people here are 'wise guys,' all right, for I haven't even met a person except yourself, that remarked on my name."

BREVITIES.

J. W. Frey has moved his stock of mantels, grates, tiles and arched iron, corner Los Angeles and Twelfth streets, where can be seen the largest assortment of black and brass fireplace trimmings to be found in the United States.

PERSONAL.

L. S. Bernheim, a wealthy distiller of Louisville, is a guest at the Angelus. Capt. R. S. Wells, U.S.A., on leave of absence, is in the city for a brief visit. Leroy A. Moore, a government official from Washington, is a guest at the Hollenbeck.

M. J. Hickey, a well-known hotel man of Prescott, Ariz., is a guest at the Hollenbeck. Alfred Sutro, member of a well-known San Francisco family, is a guest at the Van Nuys.

P. W. Dargin, a mining man of Rhyolite, is in the city for a few days, registered at the Hollenbeck. Wayland Trask left Saturday night for Kingman, Ariz., where he will take a position with a mining company.

Rev. Will D. Landis returned from the northern part of the State, where he has been visiting for some time. Juan T. Perea, a government official of Cananea, Mex., is in the city to see his wife, who is ill at the California Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Garlick, No. 900 Kensington Road, have arrived home, after a four months' sojourn in Northern Michigan.

Prof. Willard Butler and Mrs. Butler of New York, were guests at the Roslyn over Sunday, on their way to the Northwest.

George H. Coffin and family are guests at the Hollenbeck. Mr. Coffin is owner of the Monch-Ve-dan ranch, in Orange and San Diego counties.

Frank Rohner, a prominent eastern mining man, who has been in the city some time, left yesterday to look over properties in Kern county a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Galt and Miss E. J. Carter, of Honolulu, are guests at the Alexandria. They are touring the Pacific Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Comstock have returned from their wedding trip and will later be at home to their friends at No. 3632 La Salle street. Mr. Comstock is in the employ of the Salt Lake road.

L. L. McGee, formerly of Lincoln, N. Y., and well known in real estate circles in Los Angeles, has for the second time acquired a controlling interest in one of the local transfer companies.

Rev. E. W. Simmonson and Mrs. Simmonson of Douglas, Ariz., are in the city for a brief vacation. Rev. Mc. Simmonson is in charge of Episcopal missionary work in Arizona and New Mexico.

J. W. Hawkins of Kansas was in Los Angeles Saturday, looking after the interests of the poultrymen of Herington and vicinity. He reports the chicken industry as growing very rapidly in his State.

TELLS OF RUIN, ENDS HER LIFE.

Salt Lake Girl Accuses San Jose Business Man.

Alleges Manufacturer Lured Her to a Room.

Parents Say He Bought Poison for Suicide.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SALT LAKE, Oct. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A cracker manufacturer of San Jose is accused of having lured pretty seventeen-year-old Lillie Jordan to her ruin on a promise of marriage, and with the aid of drugs, and then to have purchased poison with which she took her life.

The dying girl said that she had been deceived, and saw nothing better than death to end her future misery, after the man left her.

"He told me to go to Denver, and after a short visit with his mother, would go to California," the girl said, after she had swallowed the drug.

Miss Jordan met her alleged betrayer for the first time on Wednesday, October 3, when, where and under what circumstances are not known.

Monday afternoon she went downtown, ostensibly to get some dental work done, but in reality to meet the San Jose man.

He took her out to dinner, she said, after which they went to the theater. Then they went to the Lacombe House, obtained a single room, and spent the night there.

The unfortunate girl said she was drugged, but told her parents that after the man had betrayed her, he cast her off.

The story becomes incoherent at this point, but from the parents' statement as to what she related to them a few hours before her death, it is presumed she told her betrayer she was going to destroy herself and asked him to procure the poison for her.

AMERICA EATS LESS MEAT.

Consumption Per Capita Has Declined, According to Department of Agriculture Report.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—A capital of $10,000,000 is directly concerned in the raising of meat animals and their slaughtering and packing, according to a report on the meat supply, issued by the Department of Agriculture.

This amount is five-sixths as large as the capital invested in manufacturing in 1904. Seven-eighths of the meat products are consumed within this country. The stock of meat animals has increased since 1900 and kept pace with the increased population.

"That meat consumption per capita has declined in this country since 1900 is plainly indicated," says the report.

How important meat is in the diet of different countries is shown in the following meat consumption per capita in 1904 in dressed weight: United States, 135 pounds; United Kingdom, 121 pounds; France, 100 pounds; New Zealand, 212 pounds; Cuba, 124 pounds; France, 79 pounds; Belgium, 79 pounds; Denmark, 78 pounds; Sweden, 62 pounds; Italy, 46 pounds.

PEACE TALK EXPENSIVE.

Cost of Four Months' Session of Conference at The Hague Nearly Three Million Dollars.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.) THE HAGUE, Oct. 26.—Now that the International Peace Conference has closed, it is interesting to study some of the figures which have been prepared on the cost of the four months' session.

The general expenses of all the delegates is estimated at about $2,970,000, of which $23,000 was spent to pay the cost of 217 dinners.

The amount spent by the various delegations, the press association and individual newspapers for telegraphic tolls, amounted to $235,072. More than 1,000,000 words of press matter concerning the conference were sent out.

NOTED ENGINEER CONING.

Charles Burkett Is Offered Position With Pacific States Company at San Francisco.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) MILWAUKEE, Oct. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charles W. Burkett, chief engineer of the Wisconsin Telephone Company, was yesterday offered the position of chief engineer of the Pacific States Company, and it is understood that he accepted the offer, though he was out of town today, and could not be found to confirm the report.

His friends, however, say he will go west about January 1. Burkett will probably make his headquarters at San Francisco, but will devote much of his attention to the Los Angeles system.

The Pacific States berth is one of the best engineering positions in the telephone world, it is said.
